VOLUME 45

NUMBER 6

June 2010

NEXT MEETING: June 3rd

Big SIR – Glenn Orren

It is beginning to look like summer has finally arrived. Enjoy our beautiful community. As I mentioned at our May meeting, SIRs is attempting to reactivate an RV group at the district / state level. If you're interested in joining, please let me know ASAP. We are still looking for officers for next year to support our local branch. As always we are looking for speakers and ideas. Please contact any of us on the board if you are interested in being an officer next year or if you have thoughts on future lunch speakers. After our last meeting, several of your officers met with the clubhouse management for bill adjustments for luncheon deficiencies and a discussion about improvements that are needed in both food and service. See you at our next meeting on June 3 at the clubhouse.

Little SIR – Bob Kline

Our speaker for June, Rick Keene, will talk about State Infrastructure Shortcomings, North State Dam and Levee Projects, Worker's Compensation Ills and other subjects of general interest to Northern Californians. Rick has a long record of public service. He was a California State Assemblyman and Councilman and Mayor of the City of Chico. While in the Assembly, he focused much of his time and effort on issues of great importance to the people of the North State, namely, the State Budget, Workers' Compensation Reform and addressing the State's dilapidated infrastructure, including working to prevent failing levees in the North State and negotiating to construct new water storage. He is currently working as a consultant on land use and development and is also a candidate for the California State Senate.

Travel – Charley Stein

Please go to our web-site and provide input for any travel adventures you would like to have our SIR group investigate.

Golf – Ed Quintal

For Tournament details and results go to the New Golf Website: <http://sites.google.com/site/gvsirgolf/>

Treasurer – Bob Riopel

Donations may be brought to a meeting or mailed to Bob Riopel at 18239 Lake Forest Drive , PV 95946.

Membership/Attendance – Robby Robinette

We have some good news in that there are several applicants wishing to join branch 11. The most recent one is Jim Smith. We were happy to have inducted Mike Perbetsky at the May meeting. The sad news is that we lost three members. They are Bob Esheim and Willard Stone, deceased, and Doc Holaday relocated to central California. Please go to the Branch website sir.branch11@yahoo.com and let us know of any changes to your information, especially your e-mail address. If we don't have your latest, correct e-mail address, you may not receive important notices and information.

Biography Editor – Bob Welti

Our Biography Project is coming along very well. I have information from 90% of the Members and 75% of the photos. Come to the meetings so I can take your photo, if I don't have it. Thanks for your support.
